Animals in the Public Eye:
Human Interactions & Perceptions of Animals

The organizing committee members from Beacon College's Anthrozoology Program would like to invite you to be actively involved in ISAZ 2019.

The 28th Annual ISAZ Conference welcomes students, scholars, professionals & scientists from all disciplines related to human and nonhuman animal interactions. Topics of interest include:

- Animals in Entertainment
- Exhibitory
- Cultural Norms
- Humane Education
- Animals in Captivity & Performance
- Dog Meat Laws
- Wild Animals in AAT
- Rodeos
- Animal-Assisted Therapies/Emotional Support Animals

Topics will be incorporated throughout poster sessions, various talks, and several plenary sessions during the conference.

Plenary speakers are still in the confirmation process; however, invited speakers are noted and recognized individuals representing multiple areas of expertise.

Topics outside of the listed themes will also be included in the conference program via free papers and posters in order to appeal to all individuals working in relevant fields to Anthrozoology.

Optional events for attendees will be offered before and directly following the main conference. These events include a workshop on research methodology designed for college students. In addition, a symposium examining the connection between, as well as interventions using, non-human animals and learning disabilities will be offered.

We look forward to see you in the Sunshine State, Orlando, Florida July 2019

A SNAPSHOT OF THE CONFERENCE

Host Organization

The Host organization is the International Society for Anthrozoology (ISAZ). ISAZ was formed in 1991 as a supportive organization for the scientific and scholarly study of human- animal interactions. ISAZ is a non-profit, non-political organization with a worldwide, multi-disciplinary membership of students, scholars and interested professionals.

The 2019 conference theme is “Animals in the Public Eye: Human Interactions and Perceptions of Animals”

An examination of the observed societal shift in our perceptions of multiple species with an emphasis in the areas of entertainment, exhibitry, cultural norms, and humane education

This meeting brings together a broad range of researchers, corporate employees, animal-charity workers, and professionals working in fields relevant to anthrozoology, such as animal welfare, anthropology, ethology, history, medicine, psychology, sociology and veterinary medicine.

We anticipate an attendance of around 150-200 delegates, all of whom include faculty, researchers, college students, members of relevant organizations, and those who hold a general interest in understanding the interaction between humans and non-human animals.

The Venue

Wyndham Garden in Lake Buena Vista, located one-block from the Disney Springs entertainment district with easy access and transportation to Disney's theme parks, including Animal Kingdom!

Discounted park tickets with Extra Magic Hours are also available for guests. Sleeping rooms and conference facility in one venue, making your stay easy and flexible.

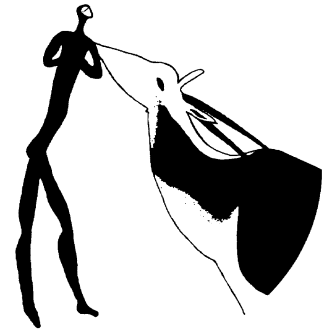

Orlando is home to more than a dozen theme parks. Chief among its claims to fame is Walt Disney World, comprised of parks like the Magic Kingdom, Epcot, Animal Kingdom and Hollywood Studios, as well as several water parks.

Orlando is also home to the Universal Studios-Orlando Resort, featuring the Wizarding World of Harry Potter, and SeaWorld Orlando.
